

Net Metering & How it Works

1

Renewable energy is generated from solar, wind and hydro.

2

The electricity generated powers your home or business first, with excess generation sent to the grid.

3

Your NET meter measures how much electricity you have used and how much excess generation you have sent to the grid.

4

Your excess generation is credited to your Nelson Hydro account and will be reconciled at the end of each year.

Questions? Please contact Nelson Hydro at nhdesign@nelson.ca to speak to one of our representatives.