

PUBLIC HEARING

THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF NELSON

ZONING AMENDMENT

TAKE NOTICE that the Corporation of the City of Nelson proposes to amend Zoning Bylaw No. 3199, 2013.

What is proposed and where?

The proposed Zoning Amendment Bylaw No. 3599 proposes three changes. First, to amend the definition of Tourist Accommodation from "30 days or less" to "31 days or less". Second, in section 1.1.10(c), it removes the existing subsection that allows for an exemption from the principal residency requirement. Finally, it proposes the ability for an older single-family house in the C1 zone (constructed pre-August 1987) that, in previous years, had a commercial use to revert back to a residential use. These changes are proposed in order to align with the new provincial legislation on Short-Term Rentals.
